

PHYSICAL EDUCATION COMPLEX

OPEN RECREATION POLICY

- To enter the Physical Education Complex, UNM-Gallup students, faculty and staff must present their LOBO Card or scan code produced through IM Leagues. The Physical Education Complex is also considered to include all walking trails and trail equipment.
- Students, faculty or staff without proper identification must be looked up and identified at the Physical Education Complex office. Any exception must be cleared by the Attendant on duty.
- Illegal use of an I.D. card will result in the confiscation of that card and subsequent report filed with the Director of Student Affairs or other appropriate department. Illegal use of an I.D. card may also result in a suspension of recreational privileges. This includes using another individuals IM Leagues profile to gain facility access.
- All individuals must follow all policies governing each facility within and around the Physical Education Complex.
- All patrons of the Physical Education Complex must adhere to UNM's, and The Physical Education Complex's Codes of Conduct. Any individual who chooses not to adhere to each Code of Conduct or not follow the Physical Education Complex's Policies will be subject to loss of all recreational privileges. "Door Crashers" are also subject to disciplinary action, including loss of all recreational privileges.
- Hours, availability of facility and policies are subject to change without notice.
