Strike and Struggle: The Gallup Coal Wars

A special reading from the El Palacio magazine fall issue cover story
Sunday, October 19, 2025 at 2 pm

The Rex Museum
300 W Historic Hwy 66, Gallup, NM

Please join us for a reading and conversation with David Correia focused on his article about the 1933-35 Gallup Coal Wars featured in the fall 2025 issue of El Palacio magazine. Correia has written a comprehensive article that details the striking miners, Communist labor organizers, murder, kidnappings, deportations, and more! Some of the events that took place in the article happened just down the street from the Rex Museum.

Correia will read excerpts from his article, share details about the historic Thomas Mullarky photographs that accompany his article (including some not featured in El Palacio), and answer questions from the audience.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

David Correia writes about New Mexico history, labor geography, and environmental politics. He is a professor in UNM's Department of Geography and Environmental Studies and the author of six books, including An Enemy Such as This: Larry Casuse and the Fight for Native Liberation in One Family on Two Continents over Three Centuries.

Light refreshments will be served at the event, and copies of the magazine will be available for sale.
