

College Access PD Opportunity at UNM Gallup on Th 4/4

Who: Counselors and college access professionals working in schools, at CBOs, or at other student-serving organizations (note: we know that this work sometimes happens with teachers too, so please don't hesitate to share this email with teachers who may be interested)

What: A free day-long professional development workshop that covers college access best practices and tools (e.g. common application, school profile, letters of recommendation, financial aid, summer programs), as well as opportunities for professionals and students. Led by seasoned college access professionals who have been working on behalf of New Mexican students and their families for the last decade.

Coffee and lunch will be provided!

Where: UNM Gallup (exact room TBA)

When: Thursday, April 4, 9AM-3PM

RSVP here by Mon 4/1. Help us make sure we have enough food and materials!
