Executive Committee Reports

1. President. Hot dog event went very well. Staff council members working on October Dinner Fundraiser similar to one last year though dinner will be held on campus. Proceeds will go back into staff council budget. Student clubs can help and receive tips that can be put into their club budget, will talk with Shawn Frank. Casual chic attire and allowed to bring a plus one.

2. President-elect. 12 spots available for Lobo Lights.
3. Treasurer. Starting fresh, make sure we have reserves; check with Robert or Mary. Began with $5364.94 left with $2184.00.
4. Secretary. No report.
5. Members at Large. No report.
6. Past president. Ordering flashlights and will get licensing approval for logo. 100 quantity. Any left over will be held for swag bags or future events.

Comments/Announcements

Council members voted on purchasing flashlights for participants during safety walk. Encouraging staff to join any committee to get involved and participate in upcoming events. Events committee is looking for someone to take lead. Would like to plan one event per month; something social or that benefits the campus community. Let Richard Reyes know if you are interested in helping with the food drive or pantry. For safety week: mentions of self-defense and situational awareness to be taught by Frank. There will be office safety drills that will have people working as a group and running imaginary scenarios. CPR and Narcan training will be done by Jacob Lacroix.
